

Monique Maley

ArticulatePersuasion

Monique Maley is President and Founder of Articulate Persuasion, a Leadership and Presentation Development Firm singularly focused on cultivating influential and persuasive leaders through communication. Monique works with executives and high-potential professionals to help them improve leadership, credibility and communication. Her experience as a classically trained actress, marketing professional and entrepreneur, gives her a unique combination of insight and expertise. Monique's programs provide her clients with the tools to articulate their message, craft a strong executive presence and embody an authentic leadership style to spark engagement and drive results. Bilingual and bicultural, Monique is a fluent Spanish speaker. She graduated from Tufts University in Boston.

“Command a Room - 7 Fundamental Skills of Women’s Leadership”

- Learn about the 7 skills that can make a difference in any career
- Learn tactical steps you can take to improve these 7 skills
- Identify verbal and non-verbal communication that slows promotions
- Identify which challenges are holding you back

“The Visible Leader – Essential Guide to Building Credibility and Influence

- Enhance your professional influence and confidence
- Learn tactics which allow you strengthen your executive presence
- Ignite engagement within your team
- Uncover hidden obstacles that may be sabotaging your success

“The Language of Your Business - Aligning Communication to Culture”

- Identify the disconnect between the stated culture and the real one
- Learn how drafting a communication plan can increase success of a merger
- Understand the risks and rewards of misaligned culture and communication
- Discover how the language of your culture affects recruitment & retention

“Managers as Coaches – How conversation, not annual reviews are helping grow organizations”

- Learn why major organizations are moving away from the annual review
- Identify & support managers who have coaching skills
- Develop a training process for your managers
- Understand the power of coaching conversations

“Virtual Communication – Is anybody there?”

- Learn the biggest misconceptions about virtual communication
- Identify strategies to improve team communication - virtually
- Building rapport and relationships that are more than virtual
- Techniques to help teams and projects be more successful

For more details, testimonials and client list, please visit the website at www.articulatepersuasion.com

512-619-3636 • mmaley@articulatepersuasion.com